LEAGUE LEADERS BEATEN IN RUGGED GAME

In a rugged encounter, Gosnells went down for the second time this season last Sunday when Kelmscott, at home, proved too good for the visiting Hawks combination.

Gosnells won the toss, kicked down hill with central umpire Bert Sampson in control of the game.

An even match eventuated till half time, with scores 7.6 to 6.6 in favour of the home side.

Just prior to half time, T. Flynn was badly winded, E. Taylor received a nasty gash over the left eye and Ken Murray was forced to retire from the game with a dislocated finger during the third term. Colgan left the field with a bad cramp in the last quarter.

In the last quarter, Gosnells started to make up the leeway, but two good goals from Buckingham and McGilvray clinched the match for the blue and whites.

Final scores:

Kelmscott 10.14, Gosnells 7.10.

Goal scorers: Kelmscott, D. Buckingham 3, K. Caporn, J. Davey, W. McGilvray 2 each, P. Fancote 1; Gosnells, L. and K. Passmore 2 each, T. Flynn, K. Ferries, E. Taylor 1 each.

Best players: Kelmscott, J. Trump, P. Fancote, J. Davey, J. Bingham, K. Caporn; Gosnells, K. Passmore, T. Flynn, J. Keiley, J. Colgan, B. Young.

SECONDS RESULTS

Gosnells 13.14 Kelmscott 4.3.

Gosnells were never really pressed and played their best football for some weeks. Their best players were M. and R. Fitzgerald, R. Chapman, B. Devine and A. Chandler.

EASY WIN

From a nine-point lead at first change, the home team went on to beat Hills by 49 points at Pinjarra last Sunday.

At no time did the visitors look like winning and but for inaccurate kicking at times by Pinjarra, the winning margin would have been greater.

SECONDS BEATEN

The visiting Hills second team had little difficulty in beating the home team by 22 points at Pinjarra last Sunday.

GOERLING MAINTAINS LEAD

With only four minor round series of matches to be played, Pinjarra ruckman Gus Goerling (25) has a 5-point lead over Bill Watts (Mandurah) and J. Trump (Kelmscott), each with 20 points, for the "Times" footballer-of-the-year trophy.

Double-figure totals to date:

A. Goerling (P) 25, W. Watt (Md.) 20, J. Trump (Kel.) 20, D. Racco (W) 19, J. Colgan (Gos.) 18, D. Anderson (A), P. Fancote (Kel.), A. Renfrey (Md.), B. Watkins (Md.), 17 each, R. Green (A), S. SECONDS

A. Jamieson (Mandurah) has maintained an increasing lead in the voting for seconds team.

Totals to date:

A. Jamieson (Md.) 21, B. Thompson (W) 12, M. Green (A), D. Callow (Kel.), P. Goudge (Ken.) 11, A. Grose (Ken.) 10, J. Kearing (P) 9, M. Sacco (Mg.) 9, M. Fitzgerald (Gos.) 8, H. Harp (H), N. Brown (H) 7, T. Ryall (C), L. Rees (C) 7.

MANDURAH MUST WIN

The match against Gosnells before the Sampson memorial grandstand at Gosnells today and the three succeeding games against Kenwick, Hills and Armadale are vital to the Mandurah side.

Still trailing in fifth position, the seaiders are going to be hard-pressed to replace any one of the teams comprising the top four.

Captain-coach Alan White was most elated with his team's performance against Maddington, but they will need to do better this weekend to topple the league leaders.

A win for Gosnells could deny Mandurah any further chance of making the four this season.

Although goal inaccuracy in the first quarter last Sunday almost cost the team the day's league honours, the brilliance of Barry Watkins at centre, Bill Watts on the wing, Dawe's safe marking and accurate kicking, Alan White at full back and others who rallied to "the cause", gave Mandurah the match by 9 points, after a very exciting final quarter.

KELMSCOTT KAPERS

A near record crowd at the Kelmscott oval last Sunday saw the home team defeat the league leaders Gosnells by 22 points in perfect playing conditions.

The game was rugged, rather than spectacular, and kept the crowd on their toes throughout the four quarters. Kelmscott gained the ascendancy in the final term.

Best players were McGilvray, Miller, Bosustow, Polossi, Ennis and Ireland. Special praise goes to John Trump who, although suffering from influenza, went on in the second half and played with his usual determination and dash.

It is hoped that club supporters recognised the player who filled the breach in the last few minutes.

The seconds were well beaten by a very strong Gosnells combination. However, the boys stuck to their task, holding the visitors in the third and final quarters.

Best player was Keith Gregson.

"Grego", a veteran of umpteen seasons, was unbeaten all day. He was ably supported by Bartley, McKay, McArthur, Callow and Smith.

Supporters, please remember the forthcoming dance at Karragullen. This will be the last of these functions for the season, so let's make it a must . . . keep your eye on these notes for further details.

ARMADALE DOINGS

Waroona extended our team in the match on their own ground last Sunday, when they put on eight goals in the third quarter. However, our side finished with a 15-point margin.

Congratulations to Kevin Miller and wife on the safe arrival of a son. There are rumours that the club's talent scouts have an eye on the youngster.

A gymkhana meeting will be held in the R.S.L. Hall, on Wednesday, August 22, at 8 p.m. All members are earnestly requested to attend.

THE HAWKS REPORT

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. P. Rayment, snr., for their 33rd wedding anniversary; also congratulations to Ken and Gwen Price on the birth of a son on July 28.

Best wishes to John Marsh, who celebrated his birthday recently.

The dance held on July 27 was a great success and the club extends its thanks to Bob Rayment, Ted Taylor, Barrie Matison, Terry Flynn and Tony Chandler for the miming acts they staged.

League and seconds players were entertained to a players' tea on Thursday night, August 2, and once again thanks are due to the ladies' committee for the excellent meal they supplied.

At present, several players are suffering from a variety of injuries. Among them are Frank Greenwood, Noel O'Connell, Ken Murray, Ted Taylor and Terry Flynn, received hard knocks during the Kelmscott match. It is hoped these players will soon be 100 per cent fit.

Club members and supporters regret to hear that Maureen Smith, wife of former player Cedric Smith, is at present in hospital. Best wishes go to her for a speedy recovery.

Birthday wishes to junior footballers, John and Peter Passmore, who celebrated their birthdays earlier this week.

WAROONA WHISPERINGS

Waroona has lost another of its players, Ross Percy, to the Army. Keith Thompson was the first departure from the club's ranks.

Vic Hansen has been appointed official trainer to the club.

Coach R. McRae was very pleased with his team's display against Armadale last Sunday. Particularly did the black and whites excel themselves in the third quarter. Unfortunately, they petered out in the last term.

PINJARRA PENINGS

PINJARRA: Club members wish to congratulate goal umpire, E. Enzo, and his wife on the birth of a baby daughter.

Although there were rush arrangements for the social last Saturday night, it turned out to be an outstanding success and all present thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The best performance was given by captain-coach, Gus Goerling, with his dancing performance. Although he was slow off the mark, he gradually took control of the field—sorry, the dance floor, as the night progressed. Members are beginning to wonder whether he has been receiving some secret dancing lessons.

Armada v. Pinjarra, at Gwynne Park.

Waroona v. Gosnells, at Waroona.

LEAGUE SECRETARY'S WARNING

League secretary, Mr. R. Blackburn, issued a warning this week concerning the eligibility of players for the final round of matches commencing on September 9.

The league's constitution stipulates "that no player shall play in a seconds semi-final, final or grand final unless he has played five games in the seconds qualifying rounds during the season".

Mr. Blackburn stated that this rule would be rigidly enforced.

ANOTHER PLAYER CHARGED

Kenwick player J. Renton was charged by central umpire D. Bowker with having allegedly used abusive language in the Kenwick versus Canning match at Kenwick last Sunday.

Renton was due to appear before the Protests and Disputes Board at Mundijong on Wednesday night.

ONIONS TO RETIRE

Captain-coach of Armada, Wilson Onions, has decided to retire from football, but may play again after his four weeks' suspension expires, if he is needed for the last two games of the second qualifying round.

The present period of suspension marks the second time Onions has appeared before the Protests and Disputes Board this season.

Former East Fremantle league player, Onions lifted the Armada
Demons to the final four last year.

Onions intends to continue his support for football, particularly East Fremantle, and hopes to find a job off the field to maintain his connection with the game.

SECONDS FAIL BADLY

Mandurah seconds team failed badly against Maddington at Rushton Park last Sunday.

Some of the locals best play for the match came in the closing stages, able to outscore them.

A CORRESPONDENT WRITES

"NOT ONE-EYED" writes: In response to your invitation to raise certain doubtful points in connection with Australian Rules, I would like to know how a player can be properly checked, without being thrown to the ground.

In reply, we refer to rule No. 15, which states:

(a) A player with the ball may be fairly met by an opponent by the use of the hip, shoulder, chest, arms or open hands.

(b) A player may be pushed in the chest or side or shepherded by an opponent provided the ball is not more than five yards away.
